Notes for MICHAEL TEETS, JR.:

There's a discrepancy about Michael's date of death -- 1830 or 1850

Michael drowned in the Cheat River and due to the superstition of old timers, a drowned victim should not be buried above water level; therefore he is buried on an island at the mouth of Muddy Creek, at water level.

Notes for ANDREW TEETS:

See Ancestors & Decendants of Eugene Teets and Jennie Ellen Wolfe by Louise (Teets) Golden, July 1985. (Received copy from White in Kingwood; he obtained from Paul A.Eary, Route 5, Box 2332, Oakland, MD 21550. (304) 387-9654

Regarding Morton's list--"Our Andrew is shown as Abraham, and John is shown as married to Elizabeth Wolfe. John married her sister Margaret, not Elizabeth."

Andrew and Catherine owned land in both Preston Co, WV, & Garrett Co, MD, although they lived most of the time in Preston Co. Oddly, they are shown in both counties in the 1870 census. Apparently they were visiting or living with their grandson Lucien (son of George W.) that summer, but were back in their own home in Preston by September. Their daughter Ana Eliza lived with her parents until their death, then with Samuel Andrew.

As were most of our ancestors, Samuel Andrew Teets was a farmer, He also had a saw mill near Browning Dam. He lived near Hazelton, moving to the Lake Ford area prior to the birth of his youngest child in 1868. The land he owned was on both sides of the state line. Percy Teets told me about the log house Samuel built that stood to the north of the present house near the Lake Ford church. John L. (Bugs) Teets (a grandson of Martha Ann (Teets) Friend) remembered hearing Samuel and Catherine speaking Dutch, but they would not permit their children to learn the language. They felt that the children needed to speak only English.

Notes for CATHERINE J. RINGER:
